

International Union of Pure and Applied Physics Young Scientist Prize in Computational Physics

Name of the Award:

International Union of Pure and Applied Physics Young Scientist Prize in Computational Physics

Frequency/Venue:

- Triennially, up to three International Union of Pure and Applied Physics [IUPAP] Young Scientist Prizes in Computational Physics will be awarded.
- They will be announced and presented at the annual Conference on Computational Physics (CCP).
- It is intended that one award be made each year. However, in any given year, the selection committee may, at its discretion, may decide not to make an award. If so, multiple awards may be made in the following year.
- [It is proposed that the first award be made at CCP2007 in September 2007, in Brussels]

Criteria for selection:

- The recipients of the awards in a given year should on January 1 of that year have a maximum of 8 years of research experience (excluding career interruptions) following their PhD.
- The recipient should be the principal performer of original work of outstanding scientific quality in Computational Physics.
- A previous recipient will not be eligible for another award.

Nomination procedure:

- The awards will be advertised electronically by the C20 Commission on its web page see [www.iupap.org] and elsewhere.
- The deadline for nominations is 1st March.
- Self-nominations will not be considered.
- Nominations shall be made to the Chairman of the C20 Commission by electronic mail [p.h.borcherds@bham.ac.uk] and should include the following:
  - A letter of not more than 1,000 words evaluating the nominee's achievements and identifying the specific work to be recognised.
  - A Curriculum Vitae including all publications.
  - A brief biographical sketch.

The selection committee:

The selection committee consists of the Members and Associate Members of the C20 Commission. The selection committee may consult with appropriate external assessors.

Type of Awards:

- The Awards will be US$1000 each, plus a medal and certificate to be provided by IUPAP.
- The award money will normally be given as a contribution towards the expenses for attending the CCP.
- The winner will be invited to present a paper at the CCP.
