SHARCNET Literacy Seminars, directed towards the new SHARCNET user and open to all users, begins January 2007 at several of our SHARCNET sites.

Seminars are available via Access Grid.

Please visit <http://www.sharcnet.ca/Facilities/accessgrid.php> for information on your site's AG facilities.

Purpose:

The purpose of these seminars is to introduce new users to the SHARCNET hardware and software environment (these seminars will eventually be fully integrated into the new user certification process).

Attendees will be provided with:

- an overview of our available hardware resources, queuing and disk usage policies;
- instruction on job submission and management;
- available online resources provided by the SHARCNET web portal.

Schedule:

The 2nd Monday of each month at 10:00am

And

The 4th Monday of each month at 1:00pm

First seminar: Monday, January 8, 2007: University of Guelph, Room REYN 016 at 10:00 am

Please watch the events section on our website <https://www.sharcnet.ca/Events/> for additional information.

Registration is not required for these seminars.
